

INTEGRITY COMMISSION OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

PRE QUALIFICATION OF SUPPLIERS AND CONTRACTORS

GENERAL INFORMATION

In preparation for the full proclamation of the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property (PP&DPP) Act 2015, the Integrity Commission is seeking to determine the eligibility of suppliers and contractors in accordance to the PP&DPP Act, section 29 which states that:

- (1) A procuring entity shall ensure that suppliers and contractors—
 - (a) have the legal capacity to enter into the procurement contract;
 - (b) are not insolvent, in receivership, bankrupt or being wound up, their affairs are not being administered by a court or a judicial officer, their business activities have not been suspended and they are not the subject of legal proceedings for any of the foregoing;
 - (c) have not, and their directors or officers have not, been convicted of any criminal offence;
 - (d) have fulfilled their obligations to pay all required taxes and contributions in Trinidad and Tobago;
 - (e) have the necessary professional and technical qualifications and competence, financial resources, equipment and other physical facilities, managerial capability, reliability, experience and personnel to perform the procurement contract; and
 - (f) meet relevant industry standards.

- (2) Subject to the right of suppliers or contractors to protect their intellectual property or trade secrets, a procuring entity shall require suppliers or contractors to provide appropriate documentary evidence or other information to satisfy itself that the suppliers or contractors are qualified in accordance with subsection (1).

- (3) Any requirement established pursuant to this section shall be set out in the pre-qualification or pre-selection documents, if any, and in the solicitation documents and shall apply equally to all suppliers or contractors.

- (4) A procuring entity shall evaluate the qualifications of suppliers or contractors in accordance with the qualification criteria specified in subsection (1) and procedures set out in the pre-qualification or pre-selection documents, if any, and in the solicitation documents.

- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), a procuring entity may require the supplier or contractor presenting the successful submission to certify on oath that the documentary evidence provided to demonstrate his qualifications for the particular procurement is true and correct.

- (6) A procuring entity shall disqualify a supplier or contractor if the information submitted concerning the qualifications of the supplier or contractor was materially inaccurate or materially incomplete so as to constitute a misrepresentation.

- (7) A procuring entity may disqualify a supplier or contractor if the information submitted concerning the qualifications of the supplier or contractor was inaccurate or incomplete in any respect and the supplier or contractor fails to promptly remedy the inaccuracy or incompleteness upon the request of the procuring entity.

INTERGRITY COMMISSION PRE-QUALIFICATION APPLICATION

(8) A procuring entity may require a supplier or contractor that was pre-qualified in accordance with this Act to demonstrate his qualifications again in accordance with the same criteria used to pre-qualify such supplier or contractor.

(9) A procuring entity shall disqualify any supplier or contractor who, without reasonable cause, fails to demonstrate his qualifications when requested to do so.

(10) A procuring entity shall promptly notify each supplier or contractor who is requested to demonstrate his qualifications again as to whether or not he has done so to the satisfaction of the procuring entity.

ELIGIBILITY ASSESSMENT

The eligibility assessment is intended to assess contractors or suppliers to determine their eligibility to supply various goods and services that the Commission envisages procuring. A list of these categories of goods and services is provided in Section 1.

Eligibility is open to suitably qualified and experienced entities registered to conduct business in Trinidad and Tobago. All information provided should be in English Language.

Applicants are assessed using the five (5) criteria listed below as stated in the PP&DPP Act section 29(1). To be eligible, applicants must pass all five (5) criteria listed below.

No	Criteria	Pass/Fail
1	Legal Capacity to enter into the procurement contract
2	Not be insolvent, in receivership, bankrupt or being wound up, affairs are not being administered by a court or a judicial officer, business activities have not been suspended and are not the subject of legal proceedings for any of the foregoing
3	Have not, and their directors or officers have not, been convicted of any criminal offence
4	Fulfilled their obligations to pay all required taxes and contributions in Trinidad and Tobago
5	Possess the necessary professional and technical qualifications and competence, financial resources, equipment and other physical facilities, managerial capability, reliability, experience and personnel to perform the procurement contract; and meet relevant industry standards.

INSTRUCTIONS & ASSESSMENT PROCESS

- Applicants are required to complete Sections 1 to 4 and submit to the Integrity Commission. It is the Integrity Commission's objective to identify prospective suppliers and contractors that are eligible to tender for goods and services as listed in Section 1.
- Applicants are allowed to pre-qualify for more than one (1) category as set out in Section 1.
- Applicants must provide supporting documents/evidence for questions asked in Section 3.
- Applicants must demonstrate that they have the capacity, qualification, resources and experience to meet the requirements as outlined in the PP&DPP Act. Applicants will bear the full cost incurred in preparing and submitting the requested information.
- Applicants are required to refrain from engaging in improper conduct in the submission and processing of their applications. Applicants who attempt to influence or provide any form of inducement, reward or benefit to any of the Integrity Commission's representative, will be disqualified from participating further in the pre-qualification process.
- If information contained in the application is found to be false and or misleading, the Applicant shall be forthwith rejected. If this is discovered subsequent to the admission of an applicant to the Pre-qualification Register, the person/organization shall be forthwith de-registered.
- It is the responsibility of the Applicant to inform the Integrity Commission of any change of address, phone number(s) or other relevant information.
- In order to be considered for assessment of eligibility, applicants are asked to complete all four (4) Sections. The assessment of applicants will be based on the information submitted and any further information requested for clarification purposes.
- Once all sections have been completed and subsequent documents are received and verified by the Integrity Commission, applicants you will be notified, by letter, of acceptance into the Suppliers and Contractors Database.
- The onus is on the applicant to provide sufficient information to enable the Commission to determine eligibility under the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Property Act, 2015 (PP&DPP) section 29.
- It should be noted that the Pre-qualification of suppliers and contractors does not guarantee business or the award of a contract.
