

NEWS RELEASE:

2016 Tertiary Level Debate Champions receive prizes from the Integrity Commission

The Integrity Commission of Trinidad and Tobago presented winners of the 2016 Tertiary Level Debates- Integrity Matters - Competition with their Prizes at the Commission's Office at the International Waterfront Centre, Port-of-Spain on Tuesday May 31st 2016.

Three students from Arthur Lok Graduate School of Business who placed first in the debate each received a MacBook Pro and the three students from Complete Technologies Solutions (CTS) College of Business and Computer Science who placed second each received a MacBook Air from Commission Chairman Mr. Justice Zainool Hosein (Ret) at the Commission's Office.

The Chairman congratulated students of both institutions for their outstanding and stellar performance and urged that they continue to excel and be innovative. He looked forward to their participation in next year's competition.

Arthur Lok Jack Graduate School of Business team included Latoya Richards, Giselle Landeau-Birmingham and Ryun Singh. CTS College of Business and Computer Science was represented by Corrine Bailey, Suzette Matterson and Devi Kalicharran.

The Tertiary Debate Competition was held at the Cipriani College of Labour and Co-operative Studies on March 9, (Preliminaries), March 9, (Semi-Finals), and April 7, (Finals).

Six tertiary level institutions engaged in debate on issues of Ethics and Integrity. The competition forms part of the Integrity Commission's mandate to carry out programmes of public education to foster an understanding of standards of Integrity. It provided a forum for students to experience competitive debating and its benefits. Adjudicators included Dr. Marjorie Thorpe, Chairman of the Public Service Commission; Mr. Christo Gift, S.C., coordinator of the Tobago Forum for Consensus on the Constitution and Mr. Martin Daly, S.C.

CAPTION: Students from Arthur Lok Graduate School of Business and Complete Technologies Solutions (CTS) College of Business and Computer Science with their MacBook Pro's and MacBook Air's. Pictured L-R: Keegan Bharath, Latoya Richards, Mr. Justice Zainool Hosein (Ret), Chairman Integrity Commission, Devi Kalicharran and Ryun Singh.

May 31st 2016