
PRESS RELEASE

To all persons in Public Life as defined by
The Integrity in Public Life Act, Chapter 22: 01

The Integrity Commission of Trinidad and Tobago will publish the names of persons in public life who have failed to comply with their duty to file declarations of income, assets and liabilities and statements of registrable interests for the years 2017 to 2020 in the daily newspapers on Tuesday 26th October, 2021.

The publication is in accordance with the Section 11(6) of the Integrity in Public Life Act, Chap. 22: 01 which states:

Section 11 (6)- “Where a person who is required to do so fails to file a declaration in accordance with this section or without reasonable cause, fails to furnish particulars in accordance with section 13 or fails to file the statement of registrable interests under section 14, the Commission shall publish such fact in the Gazette and at least one daily newspaper in circulation in Trinidad and Tobago”.

The Commission has noted with concern, the number of persons in public life who have failed to file their declarations of income, assets and liabilities and statements of registrable interests for the years 2017 to 2020 and wishes to encourage the said persons to comply with the legislation as required by Sections 11(1) and 14(1) of the Integrity in Public Life Act, Chapter 22: 01.

The Commission provides consultative facilities in a confidential environment to assist declarants to comply with statutory obligations. Persons who require assistance with respect to their filing requirements are asked to call the Commission’s Offices-- 623-8305, 624-4736, 625-2393, 625-2392 Extensions 335 or 340 – to make an appointment to discuss their submission.
